

The 17th century Turkish traveller, Evliya Celebi, described embroidery as 'the craft of two hands'. Since those early years, generations of stitchers have kept this ancient craft alive and today, in the 21st century the long tradition of embroidery has been enriched with a new name: Lanarte.

In 1934 Guus and Emilie Vergnes' small store, in Leeuwarden in The Netherlands, quickly became synonymous with exclusive needlework kits. For decades Lanarte has held a leading position in the craft sector. In the 1970s and 80s, Guus and Emilie's sons developed their exclusive needlework kits to be among the best in Europe. The sale of the company to the Belgian group, Verachtert, in 2011 brought a new dynamic, creative thrust and further expansion. Today, Lanarte launches 2 new collections per year, each inspired by the latest trends. Nearly a century of excellence and quality is only possible if you are constantly seeking out new challenges; this is what makes Lanarte world class.

Today, Lanarte's exclusivity is not only reflected in the use of the highest quality materials, but also in its unique designs. Lanarte is proud of its collaboration with renowned artists, including the illustrator Marjolein Bastin, together with its own Design Team, which guarantees the success of Lanarte's prestigious collections of highly detailed, timeless and stylish designs combined with striking images.

Working on a Lanarte kit is more than embroidery. It is enveloping yourself in a centuries long tradition of art and craft .

Lanarte is the art of stitching.

The logo for Lanarte features the brand name in a white, elegant, cursive script. The 'L' is particularly large and stylized, with a long horizontal stroke that extends across the 'a' and 'n'. Below the main script, the tagline 'the Art of Stitching' is written in a smaller, clean, sans-serif font.

and today, in the 21st century, embroidery has been reborn and given a new name: Lanarte. It is a craft that has survived through the centuries, from Vergnes' small store, in the 19th century, to the present day, with exclusive needlework designs and a strong presence in the craft sector. Lanarte's success is due to their exclusive needlework designs, which have led the company to the Belgian market and further expansion. Each piece is meticulously hand-stitched and each inspired by the latest fashion trends. Excellence and quality is only possible if you embrace the challenges; this is what makes Lanarte world class.

Activity is not only reflected in its unique designs. Lanarte is proud to work with the best materials, including the illustrator Marjolein Bakker, which guarantees the success of Lanarte's designs. Timeless, detailed, timeless and stylish designs combined with high-quality materials. Lanarte is more than embroidery. It is enveloping and a true work of art and craft.

The 17th century Turkish traveller, Eyalet Celebi, described embroidery as 'the art of stitching with two hands'. Since those early years, generations of stitchers have kept this ancient craft alive and today, in the 21st century, it has been enriched with a new name: Lanarte.

Lanarte was born in the small town of Verachtert, Belgium, in the small store of Jean-Louis and Emilie Vergnes' small store. It became synonymous with exclusive needlework and a craft sector with massive needs.

Lanarte is the result of the further expansion of the Belgian group, Verachtert, by the latest trends in embroidery. Today, it is possible if you are constantly at the world class.
